

Referring to NWG/RFC: 11, it appears that file transmissions over auxiliary connections will require some mechanism to specify "END-OF-FILE." It is proposed that a length 0 (zero) message be used for this purpose. Figure 1 shows the format:

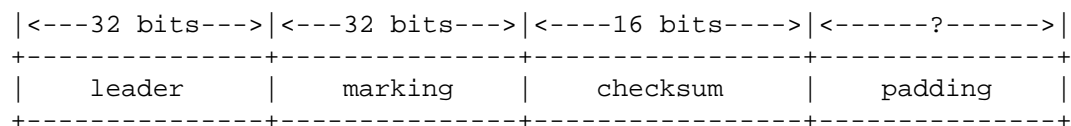

Figure 1

Zero Text Length EOF Message

[ This RFC was put into machine readable form for entry ]
[ into the online RFC archives by Michael Brunnbauer 1/97 ]